

| CMS TEA Project: Emotional Recipe Advisor |                                                                                               |
|-------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Team member                               | Tasks                                                                                         |
| Natasha Hrycan                            | Research literature on propmt engineering and LLM models                                      |
|                                           | LLM testing                                                                                   |
|                                           | Prompt design and iterative improvement                                                       |
|                                           | Carrying out the user study                                                                   |
|                                           | Results section drafting                                                                      |
| Atul Kumar Pandey                         | Literature Review and searching dataset on Food Recipe                                        |
|                                           | Design Backend Architecture                                                                   |
|                                           | Applying necessary translation and preprocessing layer                                        |
|                                           | Testing the Recipe Advisor by connecting Frontend,Backend and LLM                             |
|                                           | Conclusion and Future Scope Drafting                                                          |
| Shuyi Yu                                  | Designing the overall front-end interface and visual style                                    |
|                                           | Implementing the pixel-style kitchen interaction flow                                         |
|                                           | Building user preference collection and profile display logic                                 |
|                                           | Connecting front-end answers with backend request/response format                             |
|                                           | Developing the recipe story modal with human/LLM story comparison and nutrition visualization |